MACMILLAN EDUCATION TODAY!

The five pillars of our transformation journey

Macmillan Education South Africa strives to build a transformed, inclusive and diverse organisation.

Investing in our most valued asset

Our teams represent diverse backgrounds and cultures, and our profile reflects transformation. We recruit and draw from local talent. We invest in the development of our staff's education and skills, and through our Khula Nathi Trust staff share in ownership.

Relevant and engaging local content

Our content is available in print and digital format and is relevant to our South African context. It supports inclusivity. Our stable boasts more than 2 000 books published in all African languages.

Supporting local enterprise

We offer supplier grants to fund the development of digital projects and appointments. 100% of our Macmillan South Africa books are printed locally. We support small companies.

Bridging the skills divide

Empowering interns through our participation in the PASA internship programme. We empowered more than 350 youth through our Education Bursary and Learnership Programmes (ECD). We're a proud YES Corporate Partner since 2019.

Supporting local education

We positively impact teachers' digital fluency through our Macmillan eLearning Development Schools Programme (MeLDS) programme. We support several educational initiatives through donations and sponsorships. Over the past 15 years, more than 160 000 teachers benefitted from our Professional Development offering. We conducted free training programmes in support of the Department of Basic Education's objectives and initiatives.

A banner for Macmillan Teacher Campus ECD and Grade R Workshops. The top section has a red background with the text "Macmillan Teacher Campus ECD and Grade R Workshops" in white. Below this is a photograph of a smiling woman, likely a teacher, sitting at a table with two young children, one of whom is playing with colorful blocks. The bottom section of the banner has a white background with a green header that reads "Who is Macmillan Teacher Campus?". Below this header is the Macmillan Teacher Campus logo, which includes the text "Member of Macmillan Education" and "Teacher Campus". To the right of the logo is a paragraph of text: "Macmillan Teacher Campus (MTC) was established in 2007 and has spent over a decade supplying the highest quality education and training to businesses, governments, corporations, universities, schools and learners countrywide." Below this paragraph is another paragraph: "MTC has trained over 150 000 teachers, practitioners, lecturers and learners nationwide and managed numerous successful projects that have contributed to the upliftment of education. MTC is a nationally recognised accredited ETDP SETA training division. Workshops and training materials are developed according to the South African Council of Educators' (SACE) requirements. MTC is also accredited with the Quality Council for Trades and Occupations (QCTO) and offers an Early Childhood Development (ECD) qualification." The bottom of the banner has a red background with the slogan "ADVANCING LEARNING" in white.
