

Supporting local enterprise

We offer supplier grants to fund the development of digital projects and appointments. 100% of our Macmillan South Africa books are printed locally. We support small companies.

SKILLS TODAY! BBBEE LEVEL 1

Bridging the skills divide

Empowering interns through our participation in the PASA internship programme. We empowered more than 350 youth through our Education Bursary and Learnership Programmes (ECD). We're a proud YES Corporate Partner since 2019

EDUCATION

Supporting local education

We positively impact teachers' digital fluency through our Macmillan eLearning Development Schools Programme (MeLDS) programme. We support several educational initiatives through donations and sponsorships. Over the past 15 years, more than 160 000 teachers benefitted from our Professional Development offering. We conducted free training programmes in support of the Department of Basic Education's objectives and initiatives.
